Budapest, 22nd March 2017

Dear Prime Minister,

I was devastated to learn about the brutal terrorist attack in the heart of London earlier today. On behalf of the people of Hungary, I would hereby like to express my deepest condolences to the families of the victims.

This heinous event cannot and will not weaken our commitment to stand up against terror and violence. I can assure you that Hungary remains a firm ally of the United Kingdom in the fight against international terrorism.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the people of Britain in these difficult moments.

Yours sincerely,
